

Weddings and Costs at Castle Oliver

Ardpatrick, Co Limerick, Ireland.

Castle Oliver is a stunning Irish castle built in 1843 as a private residence for Mary and Elizabeth Oliver-Gascoigne.

In 1852 Elizabeth married Lord Ashtown and it became known as the home of Lord and Lady Ashtown.

Today it remains a private castle and is available to hire exclusively for your special occasion giving you all the benefits of a private house where unlike a hotel the only guests present are those you invite.

When you rent Castle Oliver it is for the exclusive use of the castle and grounds. Set on 15 acres of private gardens and woodland with its own lake it creates an ideal location for your memorable photographs. The castles backdrop is equally spectacular for a drinks reception with the mythical stone griffins keeping watch at every event.

Castle Oliver is a fairytale castle with battlements, turrets and a flag tower. Built with local red sandstone it hosts a magnificent Ballroom with antique chandeliers and a period fireplace creating the perfect setting for your wedding reception.

The baronial dining room is the perfect setting for a candlelit dinner enjoyed by the bridal party the night before or after the wedding. Guests can retire to the Billiards room or relax with a night cap in the Library making your special day a day to remember for your guests.

The cost to hire this enchanting castle for two nights is 3,500.00 euros which includes complimentary use of the bridal suite with its lavishly carved 6ft four poster bed.

There are four other superior en-suite rooms in the main castle priced at 125.00 euros per person sharing per night. These rooms include newly commissioned hand carved four poster beds and luxurious en-suite bathrooms with large antique bathtubs.

Three deluxe en-suite rooms are available on a separate wing of the castle priced at 95.00 euros per person sharing per night.

All rooms must be booked for a minimum two nights.

The total cost for exclusive rental of the entire castle with grounds plus accommodation in eight double en-suite rooms is 6,640.00 euros.

We can recommend accommodation for your additional guests in local hotels, guesthouses and self catering properties if required.
